*Come and rest, Come and listen,
There's a wisdom deep within that calls us closer.*

Moog Contemplation

Leader

Most of us breathe too shallow.
Take a deep breath all the way into the far corners of your lungs...
Fill up your breath...fill your spirit
We spend so much time: solving, fixing, figuring out.

Listen to the beating of your heart...it will tell you what makes you fully alive.

Examen

Reader: For that which, then, I thought was right...

People: have mercy, God.

Reader: For that which, now, I regret...

People: forgive me, God.

Reader: For that which, hence, I know not what to do...

People: guide me, God.

Leader: Come and rest, come and listen. Know that grace, forgiveness and guidance are available to you at each and every moment that we turn to receive them.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sung Response
*Come and rest, Come and listen.
Lay the fullness of your lives before the Maker.*

The Psalmist’s Prayer (Psalm 4:1;6-8) ~ in unison

Answer me when I call, O God of my right! You gave me room when I was in distress. Be gracious to me, and hear my prayer. How long, you people, shall my honor suffer shame? How long will you love vain words, and seek after lies? But know that the Lord has set apart the faithful for himself; the Lord hears when I call to him. When you are disturbed, do not sin; ponder it on your beds and be silent. Offer right sacrifices and put your trust in the Lord. There are many who say, “O that we might see some good! Let the light of your face shine on us, O Lord!”

Sung Response
*Listen to the word that God has spoken; listen to the One who is close at hand;
listen to the voice that began creation, listen even if you don’t understand.*

Reader: Answer me when I cry out, my righteous God! Set me free from my troubles!

People: Have mercy on me! Listen to my prayer!

Reader: Many people say, “We can’t find goodness anywhere.

People: The light of your face has left us, Lord!”

Sung Response
*Listen to the word that God has spoken; listen to the One who is close at hand;
listen to the voice that began creation, listen even if you don’t understand.*

Reader: But you have filled my heart with more joy than when their wheat and wine are everywhere! I will lie down and fall asleep in peace

People: because you alone, Lord, let me live in safety.

Sung Response
*Listen to the word that God has spoken; listen to the One who is close at hand;
listen to the voice that began creation, listen even if you don’t understand.*

Invitation to the Lord's Table ~ The Rev. Jim Faile

Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord's Prayer ~ in unison

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Reminder: All are invited to the Redford Interfaith Relief Unity in Community virtual event and auction tonight from 6:00PM-7:00PM. Please visit www.redfordinterfaithrelief.org for the links to the event and bidding site. This event is in lieu of the annual Cognizance Dinner and Auction, which raises funds for our partner in ministry, which has served Redford and the surrounding communities for more than 20 years.

Trunk or Treat was a wonderful outreach that took place a week ago yesterday as an outreach to our community. In lieu of our full Fall Fun Festival, we had eleven trunks/tables that welcomed 35 children and their families and blessed them with candy, crafts with a faith message, and warm smiles and greetings! Thanks to those who were able to dress up, decorate trunks/tables, and share treats safely and socially distanced outside on a beautiful day! Please pray for those children and families that God will meet them where they are and know that St. Paul's is a place in their community that, through Christ, cares for them.

 trust re - move; O bear me safe a - bove, a ran - somed soul!

Originally a poem of private reflection, this text was offered to the composer when he asked the author if he had written anything that could be set to music for a new hymn and tune collection. This was the first tune written for these words and has proved the most enduring.

- 2 Come to the table of peace...
- 3 Come to the table of love...
- 4 Come to the table of hope...
- 5 Come to the table of joy...

The simple, formulaic nature of this song makes it especially suitable for use during the communion portion of the Lord's Supper. Because it can be learned readily and does not require reference to a printed source, it frees people to sing before and after receiving the elements.

804 Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart!

1 Re - joyce, ye pure in heart! Re - joyce, give thanks, and sing!
 2 With voice as full and strong as o - cean's surg - ing praise,
 3 Yes, on through life's long path, still chant - ing as ye go,
 4 At last the march shall end; the wea - ried ones shall rest;
 5 Then on, ye pure in heart! Re - joyce, give thanks, and sing!

Your fes - tal ban - ner wave on high, the cross of Christ your King.
 send forth the stur - dy hymns of old, the psalms of an - cient days.
 from youth to age, by night and day, in glad - ness and in woe:
 the pil - grims find their home at last, Je - ru - sa - lem the blest.
 Your fes - tal ban - ner wave on high, the cross of Christ your King.

Refrain

Re - joyce! Re - joyce! Re - joyce, give thanks, and sing!
 Re - joyce! Re - joyce!

These stanzas are drawn from a much longer hymn created for the processional at an English choir festival in 1865. The original text lacked the refrain that gives the hymn so much of its energy and interest. That feature was added by the composer of this tune in 1883.
